Identity Mark Hosack

The corporate greed of Wall Street meets the Hitchcockian suspense of North by Northwest in this thrilling debut by screenwriter Mark Hosack (The Good Spy Dies Twice).

One day Paul Majors is a respectable businessman looking into some accounting irregularities in his office's parent company. The next he's wading through a murky world of dark finance, uncovering a vast web of illegal activities in the CEO's executive circle, being hunted by a ruthless corporate assassin and the FBI, and getting sucked into a second company's illicit dealings.

As he travels across the United States to unravel the twin mysteries he's caught in, it's not clear who Paul can trust—or even who is who. The woman who seduced him at the hotel bar might be there to help, or take him out. The government agents change with a chameleon's ease. Heck, even Paul's running around under an assumed name!

In this corporate shell game of names and motivations, Paul's got 1,500 loyal employees—and his own life—on the line. But it's becoming dangerously clear that Paul himself is not Too Big to Fail...or to be killed.
