Walking TOKYO Sketches of Popular and Memorable Sites (Walking series) Rumiko Hotta

Tokyo is one of the world's largest urban centers where more than 13 million people call it their home. Like an encyclopedia, myriad things co-exist in the city: amusement facilities and commercial complexes composing a city without sleep; temples, shrines, and other traditional sites shaped by 2,000 years of history; and bountiful of nature wraps all those things together gently...

This collection features 48 sketches of Tokyo out of more than 200 works Hotta has drawn over 30 years. All sketches feature very popular sites where many international tourists visit, and historically notable places. Its official website (below) providing the map and travel guide to each place, this is a good visual guide to the city, as well as a perfect gift for anyone who loves Japan.
