In these increasingly competitive times, the difference between winning or losing potential business often comes down to the quality of the business proposal. "Winning Business Proposals" explains the strategies, tactics and techniques that can lead to successful business proposals and provides a step-by-step guide to the entire proposal-writing process. The book comes complete with a suite of software, "Autopropose Software", that will completely automate the production of proposals so that anyone can create superior business proposals. Together, the book and the software should give sales and marketing managers, account executives and others a competitive advantage to increase the quantity and quality of their business.
