Mae Jane Mathison was never the type to push the limits, or try something new. She's a studious librarian and church volunteer, so when she needs advice there's only one man she wants to turn to - the new Pastor, Brian Ellis. What she doesn't know is Brian had to leave his last church for a reason - namely, his habit of seducing lonely women that grow close to him. Although determined to turn over a new leaf with his new church, he finds himself being tested in a real way when Mae Jane decides to confide in him. When things get out of hand fast, word spreads in their quiet town and soon they'll both be forced to either run and hide or face the music. One thing is for sure - before redemption, they'll have to live in sin. This book contains explicit sex scenes and is for mature romance readers only.
