This list is the outgrowth of one resulting from a meeting of botanists interested in the subject, which was held at Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University in May 1978 (Porter, in press). The earlier history of such lists for Virginia is discussed in that publication. The present list differs in that the statuses of the included taxa have been somewhat refined and more information on those in the categories of Special Concern and Status Undetermined has been added, as have the names of a few more taxa.
