Concealed Issues Lynda Tidwell Morris

A YOUNG WOMAN'S STORY OF DESPAIR AND BONDAGE-FORGIVENESS AND FREEDOM. . .

Packing her belongings in her blue, 2000 Camry, Tricia left Beaufort for Columbia, South Carolina vowing to leave behind the extra baggage-hurt, heartaches, pain and poverty she had endured growing up in Beaufort. Taking a deep breath, she inhaled the scent from the marsh on either side of the highway. As much as she didn't like the smell of that stinking mud, it would be the only thing she missed. Taking her best friend, Sheri up on her offer to move to Columbia, Tricia was uncertain about her future, but she knew anywhere had to be better than Beaufort. A small town girl, Tricia never expected to capture the heart of one of Columbia's single, most handsome, wealthy businessmen, Craig Jones. Tricia has everything, however she could not enjoy her blessings because her grandmother's voice and issues from her past had her in bondage. A story of many lives connected by a single strand; whether through guilt, shame, infidelity or despair, they all will have to face their "Concealed Issues" in order to become whole. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Lynda Tidwell Morris is the author of Nappy Head and All. This is her second novel. She is also an inspirational playwright and the founder, president, and director of Letty's Gospel Theater and LTM Productions. Lynda currently resides in Seabrook, South Carolina, with her husband, Roy, USMC-Retired (30 years). They have two adult children; Roderick and LaFran and a granddaughter Raigan Lyn.
