Titanium Zeia Jameson

I was once told I was unbreakable and I believed it. But when everything I held dear was lost, I had no choice but to shatter.

Every day, Kat laces up her gloves and fights away her demons. When fighting doesn't subside the pain, scotch and promiscuity beckon. Her life has no purpose. She has no viable future. And she wishes she'd never met Kevin Fitzpatrick.

He annoys her profusely. He asks too many questions. He follows her like a stalker.

But, strangely, she can't seem to tear herself away from him. There is something about him she can't shake.

Kat has secrets, but so do the people who claim to have her best interests at heart. When all is revealed and the dust settles, will Kat be knocked down for the count, once and for all? Or can the pieces of her broken past help her become indestructible once again?
