Torts Q&A 2003-2004 5/e (Q & A S) David Green

This book demonstrates to candidates how to translate knowledge into answers that will attract high grades in examinations. The new edition includes recent developments (which are always popular with examiners), such as the strict liability approach to product liability, the application of the Human Rights Act to nuisance and Rylands, and the current approach to the complex area of breach of statutory duty. QA Torts Law is especially useful for the undergraduate law student who is in the process of preparing for examinations.
