It's Miko's birthday, and he's as excited as can be. It's also his friend Mimiki's birthday, but Miko is the only one who gets any presents. Miko would like to share with him, but it isn't so easy to find something Mimiki can play with too. How can they have fun with the toys together to make it the best double birthday ever?

This is a charming story about what birthdays really mean, and a great way to talk about sharing and friendship.
