Ambitious: Love & Triumph Danielle Grant

From a very early age, Cortez and Kasey had both been through a lot. They met at a time where they both were battling life changing situations and they became one another's solace. From that friendship, a love blossomed that neither of them could have expected. Over the years, Kasey watched on as the people around her fell in love and started families of their own. Although she was happy for the people she loved, she couldn't help but wonder when her time would come. She longed to experience the bond she once shared with her mother, with a child of her own. There was just one thing standing in her way; the man she's given her heart to doesn't share her same ambitions. Cortez loves Kasey more than life itself and while he would give her the world if she asked for it, a baby was out of the question. Though Cortez loves kids, he loves it even more when he can pack them up and send them back home to their parents. Could Cortez's decision to not have children be a relationship deal breaker for Kasey? More importantly, could his love for Kasey be the one thing that changes his mind? How will their relationship survive when the goals they had once set forth are now focused on different paths? WARNING (This novel contains adult content. If you DO NOT like reading sex scenes or (minor) foul language this is not the story for you. Read At Your Own Pleasure!)
