Shelter Now: Creative Ideas for Today's Home Natalia Marshall

Shelter Now embraces a new interior style that combines the classic and the modern, the fun and the functional, the East and the West, to produce a striking hybrid look. This new style is youthful, energetic, and playful with pattern and shape-- it features clever combinations and an imaginative use of space which is sure to be the look for the new millennium.

Illustrated with over 150 photographs, this book is the ideal tool to help you achieve the perfect modern look, with advice on the use of color, the latest choices in flooring, essential furniture icons, creative lighting, and wild accessories. It is packed with accessible step-by-step projects and original ideas that will encourage the imagination and send the adventurous decorator in search of an original Charles Eames chair, '70s junk, and glitter paint.

The ultimate style guide for anyone wanting to create an interior look that is modern, exciting, and truly individual.
