Strong Men, Weak Men: Godly Strength and the Male Identity Leonard E. Lesourd

What does it mean to be a man in today's society? Should men continue the old pattern of being strong and keeping their emotions in check, or is true masculinity something different? This book examines 11 roles which most men assume at some stage of their lives, including son, husband, boss, father, competitor and churchman. The author describes the myths and misunderstandings which surround each role and offers biblical advice that is designed to help men find a sense of identity needed for a fulfilled life. The book offers questions at the end of each chapter aimed at provoking thought and discussion. Leonard LeSourd has also written "Light in my Darkest Night" and "Intercessory Prayer".
