How do you measure a woman's worth? How do you identify her worth? Is it her voice or her career? Is it her clothes or her service? What makes you respect her as a woman? How does she maintain that respect? How do you define a woman? Woman, how do you define yourself? How do you share your worth? How do you honor your value? How do you share your love? How do you manage your pain? Woman, who do you permit to define you? How do you insure that you do not align yourself to the wrong definition? The Measure of a Woman details her soul: her anger, her happiness, her bitterness, her peace, her pain, her rage, her frustration, her battered spirit, her love, her soul, her triumph, her healing, her intimate feelings, her thoughts, her needs, her fears, her commitment, her gifts, and her dreams. The Measure of a Woman shares the details of her soul. The Measure of a Woman offers women a safe place to open her soul. For healing. For love. For power. For her to put her stuff down. The Measure of a Woman attaches concrete words and concepts to the unspeakable feelings; those feelings which she may never be inclined to share. The Measure of a Woman: The Details of Her Soul.
