Although he and Kyle parted ways, he still loved Kyle unconditionally. They were just in different places in their lives at the time of the break up; Kyle was ready to be a husband and start a family, everything Dash wasn't eager for. Dash was young, living in his youth, a socialite. He was not ready to settle down and be a family man just yet, anyway. Kyle could not respect that and kept pressuring him. Dash knew that if he was to succumb, that down the line, he would resent Kyle and he did not want that; he loved Kyle too much. Therefore, it was only fair to Kyle that Dash let him go; not for eternity, just until he shared the same prospects as his beau did. They just needed time apart, time to think some things through. Eventually Dash thought they would come back to each other, just not like this.
