SEA STORIES Desmond Barry

To mark the 70th anniversary of the opening of the National Maritime Museum, we have brought together this collection of short stories inspired by a great literary muse. Written by an impressive line-up of British and Irish authors, the collection is intended not only as a celebration of the sea but also of the wealth and diversity of contemporary writing talent.

From the remote and wild coastal landscapes of Orkney and the west of Ireland to mysteries set in the Mediterranean, and from stories inspired by John Franklin's ill-fated expedition to find the Northwest Passage back in the 19th century to a 1970s cruise ship full of teenagers on their way to Gibraltar, this collection takes us on a voyage – challenging our perceptions of the sea along the way.
