Since the beginning

Yaniv Janson

Since the beginning Yaniv Janson

At the age of 19, Yaniv became the youngest artist to be invited into the New Zealand Academy of Fine Arts in Wellington. His works were exhibited in international art events such as “Latitudes” at The Creative Growth Art Center, Oakland, California and the Grand Salon d’Art Contemporain, Paris. He has exhibited in over 35 events nationally and abroad such as the Galerie Celal in Paris, the Bet Aba Hushi Arts and Culture Centre in Israel and the Galerie Vieux Forgeron in Stanstead, Canada. His works are held in galleries and collections in NZ, Europe, the Middle East and USA and have earned 14 awards. Since The Beginning is his third book and relates highlights of his career as an emerging contemporary artist. Acrylic is his preferred media: “I enjoy the spontaneity with which I can use large brush stroke style to mould fast-drying acrylic paints. The experimental technique I have developed is to mix colour and water straight on the canvas - and balance between intention to create an impact and spontaneity. Collaborating with textile and architectural designers I embed design forms on canvas and fabric. The works of Hundertwasser, Matisse and Monet inspire me”. Yaniv currently lives in New Zealand and travels the world with each new exhibition and project.
