Inviting Muslims to Christ: A Clear Path to Salvation Including Quotations/Commentary from the Bible and Quran Randall L Ireland

The purpose and intent for this resource book's focus is to extend the hand of peace, fellowship and mutual respect toward all humanity and especially all Muslims throughout the world. We commit to respect each other's sacred texts, the Holy Bible and the Holy Quran. Confirming that while we share some similar narratives and events in each of our holy scriptures, they do in fact present two mutually exclusive paths to salvation. We respect the privilege of each faith to present itself freely without obstruction to the world. The scriptures and beliefs of these two radically different faiths present a choice to the faithful believer as being either a believing Christian or a believing Muslim. We seek to answer our questions of these two faiths as presented in their holy books statements of faith, commentaries and other theological sources.
