Ordinances and Laws of the New Covenant: Bible Expository Femi Adewuyi

In the Old Testament, God made several covenants with mankind: with Noah, Abraham and Moses. These covenants were accompanied by strict ordinances. Only by keeping these ordinances could mankind demonstrate that he had chosen to follow God and be accepted by the Angels of the Covenant to receive grace. Jesus Christ's sacrifice on the cross forged a new covenant between God and man, causing the old Mosaic covenant to pass away. In this book of Bible expository, the ordinances of the new covenant are examined. With extensive scriptural exegesis, Femi Adewuyi urges us all to ensure we are keeping God's ordinances accurately and to place our souls in the habitation of the Holy Spirit.
