The Artist on the Island: An Achill Journal Peter Hogan

This beautifully illustrated memoir by Pete Hogan is the follow-up to his highly acclaimed The Log of the Molly B. After the adventures of building his own boat and sailing from Canada to Peru, Pete decided to settle down on Achillbeg Island, in County Mayo, Ireland. As the only inhabitant on the island, Pete had to use all his resources to survive the kind of harsh winter experienced in the west of Ireland. With over one hundred full color plates, The Artist on the Island is a remarkable record of one man's attempt to forgo modern-day conveniences and social conventions in order to focus on what is truly important.
