BOSS. BOS2. BOSZ.

Jess Bilson is a girl on her way up. She is a brilliant young attorney working for the high profile firm of Mathers and Clark, which handles a lot of celebrity cases and business scandals.

She has just won her biggest case yet and she is on the fast track to the top — if she doesn't get side tracked first.

When the sexy and dominant Alex Mathers asks Jess to dinner to celebrate her latest victory, it is the beginning of a romance that Jess has been calculating for some time.

She has seen the way he looks at her around the office and she has caught on to his flirtatious smiles, but she has played the whole situation with a mix of flirtatious grace and poise.

Then there is Dean Clark, the other partner in the firm. He is a mixture of dominance and quiet sophistication — the supreme strong, silent type. But the man is also a brilliant businessman and attorney.

When he begins a romantic conquest with Jess, she is surprised and elated. To have two rich, powerful, alpha males falling in love with her — it seems too good to be true.

But Jess is anything but the ordinary girl next door who has found herself in a great position.

She is a woman who enjoys the game, perhaps a little too much. As she continues to play one man against the other, she stokes a fire that will erupt into a passionate affair that will end in a way that no one saw coming.

Jess is about to learn that a lust for power can be as dangerous as it is sexy...
